

DICK SIEMER

Dick Siemer is the retired Executive Vice President at the University of Kentucky. He has over twenty-five years of experience in higher education in senior positions as, additionally, the Vice President for Finance and Treasurer for Ohio University, the Chief of Staff at Duke University and the Comptroller for the University of Maryland System.

He graduated in 1968 with a BS in Chemistry from the University of Cincinnati, and served in Vietnam as an officer and helicopter pilot. He was a Regular Army Officer who flew with the 180th ASHC in the 1st Aviation Brigade in Vietnam and who served as a battery commander in Germany with the division artillery of the 1st Armored Division.

For the past three years he has been completing a Ph.D. in the Philosophy of Higher Education at the University of Kentucky. He is married to Pamela Siemer and they have four children. They live in Lexington, Kentucky.