

BG Scott L.
Efflandt

Readiness from the Neck Up: The Future of Army Education (Credentialing, Degree Plans & Leader Development)

Brigadier General Scott L. Efflandt, Provost of Army University and Deputy Commandant of U.S. Army Command and General Staff College.

Previous to this assignment BG Efflandt's service included:

- Deputy Commanding General (Maneuver) 1st ID
- Executive Officer to CG U.S. Army TRADOC and to CG, U.S. Army FORSCOM
- Commander, 1st BDE (Ironhorse) 1st CD
- Commander, 2-8 Cavalry (Stallions), 1st BDE (Ironhorse), 1st CD

BG Efflandt's civilian and military education:

- Associate's from Marion Military Institute as a Distinguished Military Graduate
- Bachelor of Science in Administration of Justice from Southern Illinois University
- Master's of Science in Sociology from Texas A&M University
- Master's of Science in Strategic Studies from the Army War College
- Continued graduate study at Salve Regina University

29 August 2018 / 0900-1030 (CDT)

Arnold Conference Room

Lewis and Clark Center

Fort Leavenworth, KS

Also Streaming LIVE on

facebook
LIVE

Open to All Military and Civilian Personnel

POCs: CW3 Cory McDonald and Jim Madigan at 913-684-3419

Facebook.com/armyleaderexchange